

School Bells To Ring Tuesday; Changes Made

Schools of the Olds School Division No. 31 will open Tuesday September 1st at 9:00 a.m. The Division is still short of staff at Cremona and Hamman, where Principals are needed; at Midway and Graham. It is expected that these vacancies will be filled by September 1st.

Recent decisions by the Divisional Board have resulted in the following schools being closed: Elktion, which will be bused to Cremona; and Lone Pine, Bennett, Samis and Huntfield which will be bused to Olds. To reduce overcrowding at Hainstock, buses serving Innis Lake and Berrydale will come to Olds.

Some redirection of pupils in Coburn and in Mowers has been decided upon. Pupils living north of the blind line one mile north of the township line between Olds and Didsbury will go to Olds. Those living south of the line will go to Didsbury. There will be minor exceptions to this because of road conditions and resulting bus routes.

A committee is studying pupil locations and bus routes and these will appear later in this column. New school buildings at Olds, Carstairs and Sundre, and additions at Didsbury and Cremona, are progressing favorably, and with the exception of the new Elementary School in Olds, will be ready by September 1st. Classrooms in the Olds school may be a few days late in completion, but pupils are asked to register on September 1st regardless. The addition to the Senior High School in Olds is now complete. Pupils in all centralizations should this year enjoy the fine modern spacious buildings provided.

New bus routes were tentatively established at a recent bus committee meeting of trustees and drivers held at Olds. Changes were made necessary by the closing of rural schools, and the changing of some districts attending at Didsbury and Hainstock to Olds.

With some exceptions, pupils 1 mile north of the township line (31-32) will go to Olds, those south will go to Didsbury. Innis Lake and Berrydale will go to Olds instead of Hainstock. Provision has been made for high school students who were in Didsbury last year, to finish their grade 12 there.

Routes established with families to be picked up are listed below: Samis, Doyle, Douglas, Scarlett, Jacobson, Lasse, Church, Pollock, Hagerty, Wilkinson, Roylston, Richards, Fisher, Gerwin, Smith, Whitelair, Noad, Thompson.

Lone Pine, Yous, H. Platt, Steeves, W. Platt, Graham, Wright, Noltey, Tierney, Drexel, Dahl, Knecht, St. Clair, Hoska, Kray. Bennett, Hensert, Herzog, Robb, R. Jensen, Hammer, Kenney, Hoska Yates, Kilpatrick, Dawson, Noad.

Hail Suppression Report . . .

(Following is a report from the hail suppression company which is operating from a site just west of Didsbury. The project covers portions of the Municipal Districts of Mountain View, Kneehill and Rocky View.)

Cool, wet weather returned to the project area the week of 15-21 of August. Precipitation recorded at the Didsbury Hail Suppression office for this period was 1.85 inches.

Hail suppression operations were carried out on five of the past seven days. Three of these days presented serious hail threats with varying amounts of hail occurring in or near the project.

On Sunday, August 16th, a storm developed on the western edge of the project and moved eastward to a point north-east of Airdrie. This storm left a track of light hail damage but no 100% damage was reported.

On August 17th a severe threat developed early in the day, with cloud tops over 30,000 feet high by 1 p.m. During the day three large storm centres moved across the project, giving light scattered hail over large areas of the project and was accompanied by large amounts of precipitation. Only one small area of damage was reported in the project, to the east of Carbow.

Again, on Tuesday, August 18th, a severe situation developed west of the project and moved south-east over the Airdrie area. Only small, soft hail was reported with a considerable amount of rainfall being recorded in its path. No reports of damage have been received from this storm.

PRACTICE AND PROMOTE
FARM SAFETY

This year, the week of July 19 to 25 was proclaimed "Farm Safety Week" in Canada. The chief aims of this national week are: (1) to draw the attention of farm people to the hazards of their occupation, and (2) to educate farm people to work and live safely through the whole year.

In plain words, to make farmers and their families more "safety conscious."

The Toll is Heavy. On the average about 200 Canadians lose their lives each year as a result of farm accidents. Many, many more are seriously injured and not a few are crippled for life. In Alberta and Saskatchewan alone, in 1958, no less than 272 farm residents lost their lives through accidents. Of these, farm tractors, the most murderous of all farm implements, were responsible for 67 deaths. In the province of Saskatchewan alone in 1958, no less than 6,500 farm people suffered injuries which necessitated hospital treatment.

Care and More Care. What must be done to reduce the huge toll in lives, injuries and property damage claimed by accidents on the farm each year? Well, hazards loom large on every farm. Every farmer should, therefore, recognize the importance of making safety a habit — a good habit. Each adult farm person must assume personal responsibility, not only for acting and living safely themselves, but for teaching and selling the idea of safety to children.
It is also essential that each of us support our provincial and local officials as they seek to strengthen and enforce our farm safety programs.

Prevention. One of the basic rules for farm safety is prevention. Remove all possible hazards on your farm today — tomorrow may be too late. And every day during the present harvesting season, plan on doing every job on your farm the safe way. After all, safety is in your hands. "Think Safety, Act Safely, and Be Safe."

We believe he would have wanted it that way — leaving this world from one of the spots he loved most. "Rest in Peace, Mr. King."

HOWARD

FULCHER

By H. W. Sutherland, Assistant

We have had a number of inquiries concerning the new sweet clover variety Cumino and here is the latest on it, as given us by the Dominion Experimental farm service:

Sweet clover has been a valuable legume crop in Western Canada for many years but its complete acceptance has been hampered by a certain objectionable feature, its content of coumarin. Coumarin is the chemical compound responsible for the bitter taste of sweet clover. Elimination of this compound has been the objective of plant breeders for many years. The release of Cumino as a licensed variety culminated breeding work that was begun at the Canadian Department of Agriculture Forage Crops Laboratory, Saskatoon, in 1946. Cumino is free, or practically so, of coumarin.

The objection to coumarin is two-fold. In the first place its bitter taste may be transferred to another crop. For example the presence of volunteer sweet clover plants in a wheat field at harvest time will often result in "Mellito taste" of the harvested wheat. The second objection is that it may undergo chemical transformation to a compound that has the property of reducing the clotting ability of blood. As a consequence animals may die from external or internal hemorrhage as a direct result of eating sweet clover. The danger is not as great as it might first appear, for the chemical transformation occurs only under conditions that cause spoilage of hay or silage. Nevertheless, it is important to avoid feeding sweet clover that is suspected of spoilage.

It has been reported that the variety Cumino will not cause bloat in ruminant animals. This is in error, however, no such claim having been made by the plant breeders who developed it. Sweet clover can cause bloat, although it is generally considered less dangerous than alfalfa.

Cumino has white flowers and an erect habit of growth. There are no features that distinguish it from other similar varieties except the lack of coumarin. One method of detecting coumarin, although by no means infallible, is chewing the green leaves of sweet clover and noting the bitter taste. This taste is not present in Cumino.

Seed of this variety is still scarce, but the supply is being increased rapidly. Enquiries as to registered seed stocks should be directed to

WHY IS MONEY SO TIGHT ? ? ?

A heading in Tuesday's daily papers says that Canadian bankers are confused over the present money situation and the high cost of credit. James Muir, chairman and president of the Royal Bank of Canada, says that curtailment of credit has been forced on the chartered banks by tight money coupled with the six per cent legal ceiling in lending rates of chartered banks. Going further, he is quoted as saying: "The Canadian Bankers' Association or any member have not sought to increase earnings by asking for a rise in the interest ceiling."

We do not pretend to know the solution nor the cause. We have our own opinion that too much installment credit has been extended — at rates from 6 to 30 per cent and naturally when funds can be diverted from mundane business affairs to those exotic earnings one can hardly blame those who have funds to hire out for shopping around to the highest bidder.

Way back in the pioneer days the homesteaders were glad to borrow money at 8 per cent on discount. We know whereof we speak. There indeed was a risk taken by the banks, for both the people and the country were new and untied. The formula was, say to borrow $100 for a year at 8 per cent. Your note was immediately discounted the 8 per cent and you actually had the use of only $92. If you were lucky you repaid the loan at $100 only. If you ran into bad luck, you re-discounted and paid back on the rate of the renewed discount. One should not be too critical, for thousands of these loans were bad, but the old sores remain on those who paid and saw their less frugal neighbors get debt releases through debt relief legislation.

DEAR HOMEMAKERS,

Have you been having trouble with some of your white nylon articles. Do they turn yellow after only a few wearings. Here are some ideas on what to do to care for them.

There is nothing inherent in nylon which causes it to turn yellow, and it usually doesn't if cared for properly. However, to prevent yellowing, the following suggestions might be helpful to you.

1. Thoroughly washing is a must, preferably in a machine if construction of your slip permits, and using a heavy-duty soap or synthetic detergent. Sometimes the "easy washing" is overdone, and it's important to remember that the "dunk and rinse" which may be all right for your stockings is not enough for slips.

2. Thorough rinsing is equally important, to remove every trace of suds or soap particles. If left in, these may cause discoloration of the fabric. Soap residue may be the result of problems due to hard water, and if this is the case, use of water softeners will help.

3. Wash white only with other whites. Nylon will "attract" color, even from pastels, and it will show up as gray or yellow. Sometimes bleaches can be used effectively for yellowing from this cause.

Good Housekeeping Institute state that either a chlorine or per-borate bleach can be used on nylons, dacrons, or terylenes, orions, and rayons.

WHITENING DISCOLORS NYLON GARMENTS

The grandmothers' program has become so discolored that ordinary washing and bleaching will not restore their whiteness the following method will make them look fresh and white. Many garments may not need all the steps for satisfactory results, but it is important to follow the steps in order given.

1. Wash the garments thoroughly with soap or synthetic detergent by hand or in a washing machine, depending on the construction and the type of garment.

2. Add one package of "Rit Color Remover" to about 1 gallon of hot water (160 degrees F.) in an enamel container and immediately put in the wet garments. Stir the garments gently while maintaining the temperature (temperatures in excess of 160 degrees F. may set wrinkles in the nylon that are difficult to remove by ironing.)

If whiteness is restored evenly after 30 minutes, remove the garments and rinse them thoroughly in hot water. If whiteness is not restored leave them in 30 additional minutes.

3. Into about one gallon of warm water add two tablespoons "Clorox" and two tablespoons of a detergent.
Soak the garments for about 30 minutes with occasional stirring.
Rinse them thoroughly in warm water.

4. For the final rinse, immerse the garments in about a gallon of warm water containing a tablespoon of an optical whitenener such as "Pro-Nyl," "Nylon" etc.

How to rewrite Terylene or Dacron, or Blends of these fabrics (Source: Calgon Sales manager) Try "Calgonite", which is a detergent for automatic dishwashing machines and can be purchased in grocery stores. It is rather expensive and very hard on hands. One should use 1 cup of Calgonite to a gallon of water. Use an enamel container and stir occasionally with a wooden spoon. Soiled areas should be scrubbed with a brush or sponge. Let the garment soak in this solution overnight.

Rinse very, very thoroughly. A good method is to place the enamel pot in a sink and then let water overflow for 10 minutes. After this rinsing, wash the garment as usual.

(Intended For Last Week)

Mr. Phil Post returned home from the hospital this week after spending almost two weeks there, after being involved in a tractor accident two weeks ago Wednesday.
Last Friday a tractor driven by John Post overturned and he suffered a severely broken leg — the bone punctured the flesh. He is to go to Calgary from the Didsbury hospital for further treatment.

The congregational meeting of the United Church was too poorly attended to settle the problem under discussion. A meeting has been called for Monday evening, August 31st at 8:30 p.m. A report from the building committee is to be given.
All members and adherents are urged to attend.

The bi-monthly meeting of the

The August meeting of the Lone

Mrs. Bruce Shells with 14 members and five visitors present.

Roll call was answered by each member bringing a bouquet of 2nd.

Mrs. Bruce Shells gave the report was decided to send $5 to the Girls

Remodelling of the Lone Pine for this year. The committee chosen to look after this project consists of Mrs. K. Wood, Mrs. A.

Brander, Mrs. H. Shells and Mrs.

The grandmothers' program was given by Mrs. Roy Milne in the form of a contest among the grandmothers.

The ten cent draw netted $2.30

DISTRICT NEWS

M.V.B.C. NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

This week the new faculty will appear in the paper. Miss Janeell Hallman, a grandniece of Miss Eby, spent the weekend with her cousin Marilyn Eby. She returned to her home in Red Deer with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Eby from Pasaden, who have been visiting relatives in the community during last week. They will return to Pasadena by way of the Trans-Canada Highway and down the Western coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and family will be on campus by the time you read this column. Mr. Taylor will have completed his residence work at Winona Lake School of Theology and when he completes his thesis, will receive the degree of Master of Arts in Theology. They will be moving into their new residence as soon as it is completed.

Mrs. Suder is returning to campus the end of this week. She has been on a vacation tour of the Eastern American coast with her son and wife, during the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Eby with Marilyn were guests speakers in the Montgomery Church, Calgary on Sunday. Some transcriptions were made during the Sunday School period, and possibly these will appear on radio soon. Rev. Ray Shantz who is the pastor, has been indisposed for some time and many friends have been supplying in the pulpit for him while he recuperates. We trust that soon he will be able to take his pulpit again. Fresh fruit is beginning to come to the college from Winfield, B.C. We have a number of students from there, and their parents are trying to help the college by supplying us with some of the fruit they grew. This is of great help to the college and we appreciate greatly their kindness.

The school garden is producing fine vegetables, and Mrs. Eby, with helpers, has been able to preserve and freeze large quantities of it. In spite of the wet weather, quite a quantity of vegetables were brought in and canned by the young people of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Eby and Miss Eby were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lorraine Eby on Saturday for dinner. On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Eby were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Eby, and during the week they were also entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Eby.

HIGHWAY LITTER
CAUSING CONCERN

As the tourist season now is in full swing, it seems that attention needs to be drawn most emphatically to the practice of some persons to scatter litter along the highways.

Visitors from other provinces have noted this tendency on the part of holiday makers, whose neglect or carelessness is to be deplored. This year, Alberta has made it an offence under the Vehicle and Highway Traffic Act to distribute litter and deface the highways.

The act says that "litter" means to deposit or cause to be deposited any glass, nails, tacks, or other scraps of metal or any rubbish, refuse or waste.

It says no person shall litter a highway. Also, a person who removes a wrecked or damaged vehicle from a highway shall remove glass or other injurious substance or thing dropped upon the highway from the vehicle.

In some provinces, there are posted signs along the highways warning motorists of a $50 fine for scattering litter. These stiff penalties are said to have good effect in keeping the highways clean of litter and rubbish.

Motorists well know there are spots where litter can be disposed of along the roads. Some drivers carry litter bags in their cars and empty these at points where it is permissible to do so. Thus they GARDEN SLUGS:— Every year I receive calls from people who have garden slugs attacking their garden things. This is the time of year when they can become quite troublesome. These soft bodied, slimy creatures are legless and have no obvious head. Normally they hide by day under rubbish that may be lying around. At night they climb plants to feed on them. Practically everything green composes their diet.

CONTROL: 1. General sanitation. Clean up boards, boxes, etc. under which they can hide.
2. Metaldelyde. This material is obtainable from drug stores and seed houses and is usually considered the best slug control. Directions for use will be found on the containers.

3. The empty halves of grapefruit or melons placed cut side down among infested plants will act as a trap. Prop up one side so that the slugs can crawl under the empty shell. The slug will crawl inside during the day, sometimes in great numbers. Examine these traps every morning and destroy the slugs with boiling water and then re-set the traps.
